INTRODUCTION

Dear Prospective Bidder,

1. Nature and Scope of the Tender

- 1.1 The County Government of Uasin Gishu intends to procure by way of registration of the services of competent law firms and qualified Advocates of the High Court of Kenya (the Advocates) –
- 1.2 To be listed on its Panel for the two-year period from date of award.
- 1.3 To offer a myriad of legal and associated services (hereafter referred to as the Services) as may from time to time be required on ‘as and when needed basis’ over the period in question.
- 1.4 The scope of the Services includes the fields of Company and Commercial Law, Constitutional and Administrative Law; Construction and Engineering law; Conveyancing; Debt Recoveries; Employment and Labour laws; Health and Safety laws; law relating to Information Technology; Land Law, Public-Private Partnership, Procurement law, Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution; Environmental Law; Insurance law; contract negotiations; Devolution and Public Policy.
- 1.5 This will also include provision of expert advice and opinions on specific cases, transactions, events including projects. It may involve carrying out searches in land and company registries together with liaising with other relevant bodies and authorities.
- 1.6 The Advocates will be expected to primarily work closely and under the auspices of the Office of the County Attorney at the County Government of Uasin Gishu

2 The Objectives

- 2.1 The selected Advocates will also be expected to provide timely, up to date informed responses and recommendations to queries from the Office of the County Attorney, County Government of Uasin Gishu.
- 2.2 The and enlisting on the Panel of the County Government of Uasin Gishu shall not constitute a retainer. The County Government of Uasin Gishu does not bind itself to request for provision of any service but shall endeavor to ensure that empaneled Advocates will be treated equitably.

3. Professionalism and Experience

- 3.1 The Advocates should be adequately competent, possess substantial relevant experience who can be able to promptly offer the Services and associated consultancy.
- a. The Advocates shall at all times during the period of the engagement conduct him/herself in a manner suited to the best interests of Uasin Gishu County
 - b. The Advocates should demonstrate the capability of conducting presentations and/or providing training to staff on relevant legal aspects in the various fields.
 - c. The selected Advocates should have good credentials in handling relevant cases and matters. S/he may also have appropriate experience and/or international affiliations (Such affiliation will be an added advantage).

4 Requirements, Reports and Schedules

- a. It is expected that the selected Advocates may enter into discussion and agreement with County Government of Uasin Gishu on the approach and action plans to realize the objectives of their appointment.
- b. Taking cognizance of the entrenched adoption of Performance Contracts in government and the benefits accruing there-from, the law firms will be required to enter into Service Level Agreements with the County Government of Uasin Gishu. Therefore, law firms will be required to indicate their acceptance of signing the Agreements. This will be among the mandatory basis for selection to the Uasin Gishu County's Panel.
- c. The Advocates will be expected to give periodic Reports and Review of legal matters that they are handling and timely submission within specified Schedules.
- d. Advocates/Law firms who have previously been removed from the Uasin Gishu County's Panel or had all matters transferred away from such law firm will not be considered in this Tender.

5 The Evaluation and Selection Process

- a. The Evaluation and Selection Process of this tender will be conducted largely along the following lines:-

- i. Desk evaluation of all submitted bid documents
 - ii. Confirmatory/Inspection Visits of the Advocates' premises or any other places deemed necessary by the Evaluation Team.
- b. All Advocates who participate in this Tender shall be deemed to have consented to this Process. Uasin Gishu County therefore requests that participating Advocates and firms grant reasonable access and facilities to the Uasin Gishu County staff for these purposes.

6 Confirmation and Verification of Bid Documents

- a. All Advocates/law firms are strongly advised to:-
 - i. Follow and conform to the information contained in the Tender Document in preparing and submitting its bid.
 - ii. Ensure that they officially verify the accuracy, authenticity and validity of any and all documentation, certification or information obtained from third parties e.g. KSL, CLE, LSK, and KRA including letters from referees that they intend to or submit as part of their bid.
- b. The bidders are also encouraged to demonstrate high degree of integrity, fidelity to and honesty in the information supplied to CGUG as part of their bids. The information should be as clear and concise as possible.
- c. The County Government of Uasin Gishu advises bidders that any deviations from the contents of this paragraph may lead to automatic disqualification of such bidder.

Yours faithfully,

The County Solicitor

- 3.15.1 Where required in the tender, all law firms shall demonstrate ability of performance of the required service in conformity with the Details of Services.
- 3.15.2 CGUG or its representative(s) shall have the right to inspect/ test the law firm's capacity, equipment, premises, and to confirm their conformity to the tender requirements. This shall include any quality management system. CGUG's representative(s) retained for these purposes shall provide appropriate identification at the time of such inspection/ test/ visitation.
- 3.15.3 CGUG shall meet its own costs of the inspection/ test. Where conducted on the premises of the law firm(s), all reasonable facilities and assistance, including access to literature and documentation save for clients' confidential information shall be furnished to the inspectors at no charge to CGUG.
- 3.15.4 Demonstration, Inspection/ Test/ Visitation Report(s) shall be completed by CGUG upon conclusion of the inspection/ tests/ visitations. This Report will be considered prior to appointment.

3.16 Professional Indemnity Cover (Before Appointment)

- 3.16.1 The law firm shall furnish, as part of its Tender, a Professional Indemnity Cover (the PI Cover) as per section 3.2.
- 3.16.2 The PI Cover is required to demonstrate the law firm's commitment and ability to perform the Services together with its compliance with the law and guidelines regarding establishment and operation of law firms in Kenya.
- 3.16.3 The PI Cover shall be denominated in Kenya Shillings or in another freely convertible currency, and shall be issued by a reputable insurance company registered by the Insurance Regulatory Authority and approved by PPRA. The insurance company must be located in Kenya.
- 3.16.4 The Cover, at the tender submission stage, shall be valid up to at least the closing date of the tender.
- 3.16.5 CGUG shall seek authentication of the PI Cover from the issuing insurance company. It is the responsibility of the law firm to sensitize its issuing insurance company on the need to respond directly and expeditiously to queries from CGUG. The period for response shall not exceed three (3) days from the date of CGUG's query. Should there be no conclusive response by the insurance company within this period, such law firm's PI Cover may be deemed as invalid and the bid rejected.
- 3.16.6 Any Tender not secured in accordance with this paragraph will be rejected by CGUG as non-responsive, pursuant to paragraph 3.27.

3.16.7 The successful law firm's PI Cover will be required to be updated and valid at all times for the period of engagement and rendering of services to CGUG.

3.17 Validity of Tenders

3.17.1 Tenders shall remain valid for one hundred and fifty-six (156) days after the date of tender opening as specified in the Invitation to Tender or as otherwise may be prescribed by CGUG, pursuant to paragraph 3.22. A Tender that is valid for a shorter period shall be rejected by CGUG as non-responsive.

3.17.2 In exceptional circumstances, CGUG may extend the Tender validity period. The extension shall be made in writing. For the purposes of evaluation and award, the PI Cover provided under paragraph 3.17 shall not be affected by any extension. A law firm shall not be required nor permitted to modify its tender during the extended period.

3.18 Number of Sets of and Tender Format

3.18.1 The law firm shall prepare three complete sets of its Tender, identifying and clearly marking the "ORIGINAL TENDER", "COPY 1 OF TENDER", and "COPY 2 OF TENDER" as appropriate. Each set shall be properly bound. The copies shall be a replica of the Original. Each copy will be deemed to contain the same information as the Original submitted online through IFMIS portal.

3.18.2 The Law firm shall divide and mark the sets as follows: -

- a) NON-FINANCIAL – Three (3) sets i.e. Original submitted online through IFMIS portal., Copy 1 and Copy 2.
- b) FINANCIAL – Three (3) sets i.e. Original, submitted online through IFMIS portal. Copy 1 and Copy 2.

3.18.3 The Law firm shall ensure that -

- a) the non-financial sets, envelopes or packages do not contain any or all the information that reveals the Method of Charging for Services and the required Audited Financial Statements.
- b) No financial documents are included or inserted in the non-financial sets, envelopes or packages.
- c) A Financial set, document or item is one that contains all information on Method of Charging for Services and the Audited Financial Statements or Bank Statements.

3.18.4 The Tender shall be bound and divided clearly in descending order as listed in the Tender Submission Checklist. The divisions are for clear identification and marking of the respective documents or information that are serially numbered in the Checklist.

3.18.5 The order and arrangement as indicated in the Tender Submission Checklist will be considered as the Tender Format.

3.18.6 Any Tender not prepared and signed in accordance with this paragraph may be rejected by CGUG as non-responsive, pursuant to paragraph 3.27.

3.19 Preparation and Signing of the Tender

- 3.19.1 The Original and all copies of the Tender shall be typed or written in indelible ink. They shall be signed by any Partner(s) of the law firm. For purposes of this tender, only a Partner can sign where a signature is required unless any other person is expressly permitted by the Tender document to do so.
- 3.19.2 The name of the Partner(s) must appear either in the Registration Certificate or the Change of Particulars Certificate (both issued by the Office of Attorney General of Kenya's Registrar of Business Names) or the law firm's Confidential Business Questionnaire Part 2 (a) or (b).
- 3.19.3 All pages of the Tender, including un-amended printed literature, shall be initialed by the Partner(s) signing the Tender and serially numbered.
- 3.19.4 The Tender shall have no interlineations, erasures, or overwriting except as necessary to correct errors made by the law firm, in which case such corrections shall be initialed by the Partner(s) signing the Tender.
- 3.19.5 CGUG will assume no responsibility whatsoever for the law firm's failure to comply with or observe the entire contents of this paragraph.
- 3.19.6 Any Tender not prepared and signed in accordance with this paragraph may be rejected by CGUG as non-responsive, pursuant to paragraph 3.27.

3.20 Sealing and Outer Marking of Tenders

- 3.20.1 The law firm shall seal the Original and each Copy of the Tender in separate envelopes or packages, duly marking the envelopes or packages as "ORIGINAL", "COPY 1 OF TENDER" and "COPY 2 OF TENDER". The envelopes or packages shall then be sealed in outer envelopes or packages.
- 3.20.2 The law firm shall also ensure that the inner envelopes or packages are also marked NON-FINANCIAL and FINANCIAL, respectively.
- 3.20.3 The inner and outer envelopes or packages shall -
- a) be addressed to CGUG at the address given in the Invitation to Tender,
 - b) Bear the tender number and name as per the Invitation to Tender and the words, "DO NOT OPEN BEFORE ... (insert closing date and time as specified in the Invitation to Tender or as may be amended)".
- 3.20.4 All inner envelopes or packages shall also indicate the name and full physical telephone, e-mail, facsimile and postal contacts of the law firm to enable the Tender to be returned unopened in circumstances necessitating such return including where Tenders are received late, procurement proceedings are terminated before tenders are opened or the Tender does not qualify for further financial evaluation in accordance with the Summary of Evaluation Process set out in the Tender Document.
- 3.20.5 If the envelopes or packages are not sealed and marked as required by this paragraph,

CGUG will assume no responsibility whatsoever for the Tender's misplacement or premature opening. A tender opened prematurely for this cause may be rejected by CGUG and promptly returned to the law firm.

3.21 Deadline for Submission of Tenders

- 3.21.1 Tenders must be received by CGUG by the time and at the place specified in the Invitation to Tender.
- 3.21.2 CGUG may, at its discretion, extend this deadline for submission of Tenders by amending the tender documents in accordance with paragraph 3.8, in which case all rights and obligations of CGUG and the law firm's previously subject to the initial deadline, will therefore be subject to the deadline as extended.

3.22 Modification and Withdrawal of Tenders

- 3.22.1 The law firm may modify or withdraw its Tender after it has submitted it, provided that written notice of the modification, including substitution or withdrawal of the Tender is received by CGUG prior to the deadline prescribed for submission of tenders.
- 3.22.2 The law firm's modification or withdrawal notice shall be prepared, sealed, marked, and dispatched in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 3.19, 3.20 and 3.21. A withdrawal notice may also be sent by facsimile or electronic mail but followed by an original signed confirmation copy, postmarked no later than the deadline for submission of Tenders.
- 3.22.3 No Tender may be modified after the deadline for submission of Tenders.

3.23 Opening of Tenders

- 3.23.1 CGUG shall, in accordance with the sub-paragraphs below, adopt a two tender opening system for this Tender.
- 3.23.2 At the first opening, CGUG shall open all Tenders promptly after the tender closing date and time, at the location specified in the Invitation to Tender or as may otherwise be indicated. For purposes of clarity, this opening shall include the outer Financial Proposals' envelopes or packages of the duly submitted tenders.
- 3.23.3 The law firm's name, tender modifications or withdrawals, the presence or absence of requisite Professional Indemnity Security, the number of sets of both Nonfinancial as well as Financial Proposals tender documents duly received and such other details as CGUG, at its discretion, may consider appropriate, will be announced at the first opening.
- 3.23.4 Law firms whose tenders qualify after preliminary and technical evaluation will soon thereafter have their Financial Proposals opened i.e. of their detailed Financial Sets. This shall not be more than three (3) days after completion of the process regarding the earlier evaluation(s).

- 3.23.5 Representatives of the law firms may attend the first opening and those present shall sign a register evidencing their attendance.
- 3.23.6 Tenders not opened and read out at the first tender opening shall not be considered further for evaluation, award or otherwise irrespective of the circumstances.

3.24 Process to be Confidential

- 3.24.1 After the opening of tenders, information relating to the examination, clarification, evaluation and comparisons of tenders and recommendations arising there-from shall not be disclosed to a law firm or other person(s) not officially concerned with such process until conclusion of that process.
- 3.25.3 Official disclosure by CGUG of any information upon conclusion of that process may contain only the information permissible by law in summary form.
- 3.25.4 Any effort by a law firm to influence CGUG or any of its staff members in the process of examination, evaluation and comparison of tenders and information or decisions concerning appointment to the Panel may result in the rejection of the law firm’s tender.

3.25 Clarification of Tenders and Contacting CGUG

- 3.25.1 To assist in the examination, evaluation and comparison of Tenders CGUG may, at its discretion, ask the law firm or any institution for a clarification of the law firm’s Tender. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing, and no change in the Method of Charging for Services or substance of the Tender shall be sought, offered, or permitted.
- 3.25.2 The law firm is required to provide timely clarification or substantiation of the information that is essential for effective evaluation of its qualifications. It is the responsibility of the law firm to provide in writing the clarification or substantiation which should reach CGUG within twenty-four hours (24hours) from the time of CGUG’s query or any such period expressly indicated by CGUG. Such writing should be by electronic or hand-delivered mail. Should there be no conclusive response within this period, it may result in the law firm’s disqualification.
- 3.25.3 Save as is provided in this paragraph and paragraph 3.25 above, no law firm shall contact CGUG on any matter related to its Tender, from the time of the tender openings to the time the contract is awarded.
- 3.25.4 Any effort by a law firm to influence CGUG in its decisions on tender evaluation, tender comparison, tender recommendation(s) or appointment may result in the rejection of the law firm’s Tender.

3.26 Preliminary Evaluation and Responsiveness

- 3.26.1 Prior to the detailed Technical and Financial evaluation, CGUG will determine the substantial responsiveness of each Tender. For purposes of this tender, a substantially responsive Tender is one that conforms to the requirements of Preliminary Evaluation.

CGUG's determination of a Tender's responsiveness is to be based on the contents of the Tender itself without recourse to extrinsic evidence.

3.26.2 CGUG will examine the Tenders to determine whether they conform to the Preliminary Evaluation Criteria set out in Section VI Evaluation Criteria.

3.26.3 Notwithstanding the contents of the foregoing sub-paragraphs, if a Tender is not substantially responsive, it will be rejected at the earliest stage of evaluation by CGUG and cannot subsequently be made responsive by the law firm by correction of any non-conformity.

3.27 Minor Deviations, Errors or Oversights

3.27.1 CGUG may waive any minor deviation in a Tender that does not materially depart from the requirements of the Services set out in the Tender Document.

3.27.2 Such minor deviation -

- a) shall be quantified to the extent possible
- b) shall be taken into account in the evaluation process, and,
- c) Shall be applied uniformly and consistently to all qualified Tenders duly received by CGUG.

3.27.3 CGUG may waive errors and oversights that can be corrected without affecting the substance of the Tender.

3.27.4 A material deviation or reservation is one –

- a) which affects in any substantial way the scope, quality, or ability of performance of the Services;
- b) which limits in any substantial way, inconsistent with the tendering documents, CGUG's rights or the law firm's obligations under any ensuing engagement; or,
- c) Whose rectification would affect unfairly the competitive position of other law firms presenting responsive tenders.

3.28 Technical Evaluation and Comparison of Tenders

3.28.1 CGUG will further evaluate and compare the Tenders that have been determined to be substantially responsive, in compliance to the Technical Evaluation Criteria as set out in the Tender Document.

3.28.2 For Tenders that do not qualify past the technical evaluation stage, the Financial Sets, will be returned unopened to the law firms. Such return will be done after the completion of the Evaluation process.

3.29 Financial Evaluation

3.29.1 The financial evaluation and comparison shall be as set out in the Financial Evaluation Criteria. The comparison shall be of the –

a) Methodology of Charging for Services

b) Audited Financial Statements or Bank Statements

c) Quantified deviations, if any, as relates to any of the tender requirements

3.29.2 Arithmetical errors will be rectified on the following basis - if there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail, and the total price shall be corrected. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words will prevail.

3.29.3 The law firm will be notified of the correction of the arithmetical error(s). If the law firm does not accept the correction of the error(s), its Tender will be rejected.

3.30 Preferences

3.30.1 Preferences as per the PPADA, 2015 (Revised in 2022) together with any other relevant Regulations under the PPADA 2015 applies to these Services.

3.31 Tender Evaluation Period

3.31.1 The Tender Evaluation Committee may conduct and complete a preliminary, technical AND Financial evaluation of the tenders within Thirty (30) days from the date of the first opening of the Tender but during the tender validity period.

3.31.2 Notwithstanding the above, the evaluation period as stated in the Evaluation Criteria may be extended by CGUG within the validity period of the tender.

3.32 Debarment of a law firm

3.32.1 A law firm that gives false information in the Tender about its qualification or which refuses to enter into a contract after Notification of Award shall be considered for debarment from participating in future public procurement.

3.33 Confirmation of Qualification for Appointment/Award

3.33.1 CGUG may confirm to its satisfaction whether a law firm's that is selected as having submitted the highest compliant evaluated responsive tender is qualified to be appointed and/or awarded to perform any eventual assignment satisfactorily.

3.33.2 The confirmation will take into account the law firm's financial, technical, and performance capabilities. It will be based upon an examination of the documentary evidence of the law firm's qualifications submitted by it pursuant to paragraphs 3.10 and 3.14 As well as confirmation of such other information as CGUG deems necessary and appropriate. This may include court, office and other facilities inspection and audits; cleanliness, orderliness of its offices, and, general satisfaction and good welfare of its non-Advocates staff.

- 3.33.3 The confirmation/inspection visits are estimated to be done within the thirty (30) days of evaluation of the tenders.
- 3.33.4 An affirmative confirmation will be a prerequisite for appointment of the law firm to the CGUG Panel. A negative confirmation will result in rejection of the law firm's Tender, in which event CGUG will proceed to fill in the available gap by the next available highest evaluated responsive tender to make a similar confirmation of that law firm's capabilities to perform satisfactorily.

3.34 Notification of Appointment

- 3.34.1 Prior to the expiration of the period of tender validity, CGUG shall notify the successful law firm(s) in writing that its Tender has been accepted.
- 3.34.2 Subject to paragraph 3.35.3, the successful law firms shall be those whose Tenders have been determined to be substantially responsive, compliant with the evaluation criteria and have been determined to be evaluated tenders with superior scores, and further, where deemed necessary, that the law firms are confirmed to be qualified for appointment to the CGUG Panel of Advocates.
- 3.34.3 The appointment of law firms shall take into account the need for CGUG to have appropriate representation in its regions.
- 3.34.4 The Notification of appointment/Award shall not constitute the formation of any contract.
- 3.34.5 Simultaneously, and without prejudice to the contents of paragraph 3.25, on issuance of Notification of Appointment/Award to the successful law firms, CGUG shall formally notify each unsuccessful law firm.

3.35 Termination of Procurement Proceedings

- 3.35.1 CGUG may at any time terminate procurement proceedings before Notice of Appointment or Rejection and shall not be liable to any person for the termination.
- 3.35.2 CGUG shall give prompt notice of the termination to the law firms, and, on request from any law firm, give its reasons for termination within fourteen (14) days of such request.

3.36 Acceptance of Appointment/Award

- 3.36.1 At the same time as CGUG notifies the successful law firm that its Tender has been accepted, CGUG will send the law firm the Service Level Agreement together with any other necessary documents incorporating all agreements between the Parties.
- 3.36.2 Within Fifteen (15) days of the date of Notification of appointment/Award, the successful law firm shall indicate its acceptance by –
- a) writing a formal acceptance letter to CGUG;
 - b) signing the Service Level Agreement where required, and any other documents specified;
 - c) Returning (a) and (b) to CGUG within that period of seven (7) days.
- 3.36.3 Subject to paragraph 3.37.4, CGUG shall sign and date the Service Level Agreement in the - period between not earlier than Fourteen (14) days from the date of Notification of Appointment/Award and not later than thirty (30) days after that date.

- 3.36.4 CGUG shall not sign the Service Level Agreement and not include the name of the law firm on its Panel until and unless the authentic valid Professional Indemnity Cover is received pursuant to paragraph 3.38.
- 3.36.5 Failure of the successful law firm to sign the Service Level Agreement where it is required by CGUG to do so, AND provide the Professional Indemnity Cover as stipulated, the appointment shall be annulled in which event CGUG may notify the next available superior evaluated responsive law firm that its Tender has been accepted.
- 3.36.6 Paragraph 3.38 together with the provisions of this paragraph 3.37 will apply with necessary modifications with respect to the law firm notified under sub-paragraph 3.37.5.

3.37 Professional Indemnity Cover (After Appointment/Award)

- 3.37.1 Within seven (7) days of the date of Notification of Appointment/Award from CGUG, the successful law firms shall furnish CGUG with a valid PI Cover.
- 3.37.2 The Professional Indemnity Cover shall be issued by an insurance company approved by the Insurance Regulatory Authority and acceptable to CGUG. The Insurer must be located in Kenya.
- 3.37.3 The successful law firm shall furnish the PI Cover in no less than the sum of Kenya Shillings Ten Million (Kshs. 10 million) or that which it submitted for purposes of evaluation whichever is higher.
- 3.37.4 The PI Cover is required to protect CGUG against the risk of the law firm's conduct during the performance of Services which would warrant the PI Cover's forfeiture or part thereof.
- 3.37.5 CGUG shall seek authentication of the PI Cover from the issuing Insurer. It is the responsibility of the successful law firm to sensitize its issuing Insurer on the need to respond directly and expeditiously to queries from CGUG. The period for response shall not exceed three (3) days from the date of CGUG's query. Should there be no conclusive response by the Insurer within this period, such successful law firm's PI Cover may be deemed as invalid.
- 3.37.6 Failure of the successful law firm to furnish an authentic PI Cover, the appointment/Award shall stand annulled.
- 3.37.7 Paragraphs 3.35 and 3.37 together with the provisions of this paragraph 3.38 will apply with necessary modifications, and as far as circumstances permit, with respect to the law firm notified under sub-paragraph 3.37.5.

3.38 Corrupt or Fraudulent Practices

3.38.1 CGUG requires that law firms observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement process and execution of contracts. When used in the Regulations, the following terms are defined as follows: -

- a) “Corrupt practice” means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of public official in the procurement process or in contract execution;
- b) “Fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of CGUG, and includes collusive practice among law firms (prior to or after Tender submission) designed to establish tender prices or other content at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive CGUG of the benefits of free and open competition.

3.38.2 CGUG will reject a proposal for appointment/award if it determines that the law firm recommended for appointment/ award has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for this tender.

3.38.3 Further, a law firm which is found to have indulged in corrupt or fraudulent practices risks being debarred from participating in public procurement in Kenya.

3.39 Conflict of Interest

3.39.1 A law firm bidding for provision of Legal Services shall ensure that it does not have any conflict of interest with respect to CGUG.

3.39.2 For purposes of this paragraph, a conflict of interest with respect to CGUG includes, but is not limited to circumstances, where the law firm, after seven (7) days of the Law firm’s acceptance of CGUG’s Appointment to its Panel, is still a provider of professional services to a party with conflicting interests to CGUG.

3.39.3 The law firm shall be required to state in the prescribed form, details of any case or assignment in which it on its own behalf or it has acted on behalf of a party with conflicting or adverse interests to CGUG within the last three (3) years of the Date of the Prequalification Tender Document.

SECTION IV - SCHEDULE OF REQUIREMENTS

4. Brief Schedule of Services Required

4.1 CGUG intends to procure by way of registration the services of competent law firms and qualified Advocates

(The Advocates) –

4.1.1 To be listed on its Panel for the Two-year (2) period from the date of signing contract or as may be extended depending on satisfactory performance.

4.1.2 To offer a myriad of legal services (hereafter referred to as the Services) as may from time to time be required over the period in question.

4.2 The scope of the Services includes the fields of Energy Law, Company and Commercial Law, Constitutional and Administrative Law; Construction and Engineering law; Conveyancing; Debt Recoveries; Employment and Labour laws; Health and Safety laws; law relating to Information Technology; Land Law, Public-Private Partnership, Procurement law, Arbitration and Alternative Dispute Resolution; Environmental Law; Insurance law; civil litigation; contract negotiations; Legislative drafting; Devolution and Public Policy.

4.3 This will also include provision of expert advice and opinions on specific cases, transactions, events including projects. It may involve carrying out searches locally and abroad in land and company registries and liaising with other relevant bodies and authorities.

SECTION V – METHOD OF CHARGING FOR SERVICES

PART A

5.1 Advocates Remuneration Order under the Advocates Act, 2014

5.1.1 CGUG’s appointment will consider law firm’s that offer the right balance of value for money as measured by the quality of legal service rendered. Law firms will be expected to identify ways in which legal costs for any significant or complex cases may be mitigated.

5.1.2 CGUG expects that legal fees and charges payable shall generally be in accordance with the Order as applicable to the case or matter being handled.

5.1.3 The mode of billing shall be considered on a case-by-case basis and subject to agreement between CGUG and the firm. Should there be a difference on this, then CGUG and the law firm may by agreement refer the issue to Taxation with each party bearing their own costs for the Taxation.

PART B

5.2 Advocates Remuneration Order (Schedule V) under the Advocates Act, 2014

5.2.1 Without prejudice to the contents of paragraph 5.1, CGUG recognizes that the present 5th Schedule of the Order provides for an hourly billing system or an amount fixed by agreement between CGUG and the firm.

5.2.2 Law firms are required to fill in the table below (Hourly Billing Table). If and when the issue of hourly billing arises from the performance of services instructed within the three - year period, where CGUG consents, the parties will refer to the Table 5.2.2 below as a basis for discussion and determination of fees payable.

4.1 Some Advocates may have long cheered careers and experience. However, all Advocates are strongly advised to furnish their CV's in the format provided and which should not be more than two (2) single sided A4 size pages at font 12 spacing at least 1.25.

4.2 Any information in the CV that is beyond the 2 pages may stand disregarded for purposes of evaluation.

4.3 Any CV that is not signed by both the owner of the CV and the person authorized to sign the tender may be disregarded. Where the owner and the authorized person are the same, the signature by such same person will suffice.

5. Definition of Partner

5.1 Partner where used in Technical Evaluation and its attendant Tables shall mean Senior or Managing Partner. This Partner shall be s/he who has equity in the law firm AND also shares its profits as well as losses. All other definitions of "Partner" however styled or of whatever nature shall be excluded from the definition of Partner.

5.2 Where a law firm has both a Senior and Managing Partner in different persons, it has a discretion to use any one of them whom it deems would more advance and enhance i its bid in this Tender.

5.3 Conversely, where a law firm has only one Partner, that Partner shall be considered the Managing or Senior Partner for purposes of this Tender.

6. Combining Information in Single Document

6.1 CGUG recognizes that there could be several letters which are required to be authored by the law firm whereas the information may be combined in one document or letter. Where the law firm feels that the information may be adequately contained in one letter or document, the law firms may do so. The law firm must state that the information variously requested is in the submitted single letter or document and identify that document or letter.

6.2 Where the law firm exercises this option of combining, care must be taken to ensure that all the information required of the several separate documents is included in the composite letter or document.

6.2.1 No information sought should be omitted at all.

6.2.2 The requirements as to several signatures and certifications in the different documents may be dispensed with. Instead a single signature (and cosignatory

Where required) together with a single certification, all on each printed page of the letter or document may suffice.

7. Staff's Nature of Engagement with the Law Firm

7.1 It is recommended that the staff (including Advocates who are not Partners) be permanent or contracted employees or at least have an extended and stable relationship with the law firm.

8. Qualification and Scoring

8.1 To qualify for further evaluation and any appointment, the law firm ought to score a minimum of 80 marks from the tables out of a total of 128 marks awardable.

8.2 For firms that are eligible under preferences, the minimum marks shall be 70 From the tables out of the 128 marks awardable.

8.3 To earn any mark,

8.3.1 The law firm's must satisfy each and every tenet of each criterion to obtain the full award or marks for that particular criterion.

8.3.2 Where any single tenet is not fulfilled for any criterion, the marks may not be awarded. For instance, where a law firm submits the correct document but lacks a signature or fails in certification or absence of letter, the firm may lose the full marks for that criterion.

8.4 For avoidance of doubt, partial scoring in a criterion will be avoided and only full marks as per the scheme and criteria in the respective tables may be awarded.

8.5 Where after completion of all calculations and the Grand Total in the tables is obtained that contains a decimal mark, such decimal will be rounded off to the nearest whole. Where the decimal mark is naught decimal five (0.5), this shall be treated as a full mark upwards.

9. Third Party Documents

9.1 Where any document is required unless expressly permitted, the law firm's own letters or documents originating from it may not be reckoned for purposes of evaluation.

Progress to Next Stage of Evaluation

Law firms whose bids qualify in compliance with Parts I and II i.e. Preliminary and Technical stages will have their financial documents opened and scrutinized under the Financial Evaluation Criteria below.

8.4.3 Any document, other than the contract itself, enumerated in sub-clause 8.4.1 shall remain the property of CGUG and shall be returned (including all copies) to CGUG on completion of the law firm’s performance of any assignment which may be given to and accepted by it, where so required by CGUG.

8.5 Professional Indemnity Cover

- 8.5.1 Within fourteen (14) days of the date of notification of appointment from CGUG, the successful law firm shall furnish CGUG with a valid PI Cover.
- 8.5.2 The Professional Indemnity Cover shall be issued by a reputable insurance company registered by the Insurance Regulatory Authority. The insurer must be located in Kenya.
- 8.5.3 The successful law firm shall furnish the PI Cover in no less than the sum of Kenya Shillings Ten Million (Ksh. 10 Million) or that which it submitted for purposes of evaluation in the Tender whichever is higher.
- 8.5.4 The law firm shall ensure that the PI Cover remains valid throughout the period of Appointment and where CGUG engages it in any assignment up to the conclusion of that assignment.
- 8.5.5 The PI Cover is required to protect CGUG against the risk of the law firm's conduct During the performance of Services which would warrant the PI Cover's forfeiture or part thereof.
- 8.5.6 CGUG shall seek authentication of the PI Cover from the issuing Insurer. It is the responsibility of the successful law firm to sensitize its issuing Insurer on the need to respond directly and expeditiously to queries from CGUG. The period for response shall not exceed five (5) days from the date of CGUG's query. Should there be no conclusive response by the Insurer within this period, such successful law firm's PI Cover may be deemed as invalid.
- 8.5.7 Failure of the successful law firm to furnish an authentic PI Cover, the appointment shall stand annulled.
- 8.5.8 The law firm shall provide such evidence of the continued existence and validity of the PI Cover as CGUG may reasonably and from time-to-time request.

8.6 Demonstration(s), Inspection(s) and Test(s)

- 8.6.1 The law firm will be required to demonstrate dexterity, diligence, skill and professionalism in the performance of Services when called upon to do so right from receipt of instructions to conclusion of the assignment which is by closure of the file or matter by agreement between CGUG and the law firm except in cases of earlier cessation of instructions.
- 8.6.2 CGUG or its representative(s) shall have the right to inspect and confirm this demonstration of the law firm's performance, capacity, equipment, premises, and to confirm their conformity to the Conditions of Appointment. This shall include any Quality Management System.
- 8.6.3 CGUG shall meet its own costs of the inspections/ visits. These may be done on the law firm's offices, courts or any other place at the discretion of CGUG.
- 8.6.4 Where conducted on the premises of the law firm(s), all reasonable facilities and Assistance, including access to literature and documentation save for other clients' confidential information shall be furnished to CGUG representative(s) at no charge to CGUG.

8.6.5 A Demonstration/Visitation Report(s) may be completed by CGUG upon conclusion of the inspection/ visitation. This Report where done shall be considered during periodical review with the law firm for purposes of improvement in the engagement between the parties, performance, analysis and continued empaneling or reappointment at the end of the Period.

8.6.6 Nothing in this clause 8.6 shall in any way be construed as a Waiver of any kind whatsoever or release the law firm from any of its obligations under the Advocates Act as and when it is engaged in any matter by CGUG.

8.7 Nature of the Conditions

8.7.1 The enlisting of the law firm on CGUG's Panel shall not constitute a retainer or contract.

8.7.2 CGUG does not bind itself to request the law firm for provision of any Service during any time in which the law firm is considered to be on its Panel.

8.8 Interest

8.8.1 Where the law firm is instructed by CGUG on any assignment or matter, it is hereby agreed that interest payment by CGUG is inapplicable on any charges or fees accruing to the law firm.

8.9 Fees and Rates

8.9.1 Where professional fees, charges or payments of any kind are due and owing to the law firm, the guide for payment shall be the relevant Advocates Remuneration Order except for Schedule V thereon.

8.9.2 The mode of billing shall be considered on a case-by-case basis and subject to agreement between CGUG and the law firm. Should there be a difference on this, then CGUG and the law firm, may by agreement, refer the issue to Taxation with each party bearing their own costs for the Taxation.

8.9.3 The parties recognize that the present 5th Schedule of the Advocates Remuneration Order under the Advocates Act, 2014 provides for an hourly billing system or an amount fixed by agreement between CGUG and the firm. Where fees or charges are due and owing to the law firm and it is agreed between the law firm and CGUG that the same should be paid on the basis of Schedule V, then and in that event, the parties shall discuss the quantum thereof with regard to the figures indicated by the law firm in its tender at the Method of Charging for Services section.

8.10 Assignment

- 8.10.1 The law firm shall not assign or in whole or in part its appointment by virtue of its contract assign or sub-contract its obligations to perform when instructed by CGUG except as may be prescribed.
- 8.10.2 In the event that a sub-contract is permissible and the law firm sub-contracts its role, the responsibility and onus over the instructions given to the law firm shall rest with the law firm that is Pre-Qualified by CGUG.

8.11 Resolution of Disputes

- 8.11.1 CGUG and the law firm may make every effort to resolve amicably by direct informal negotiation any disagreement or dispute arising between them under or in connection with its appointment to the Panel or during the performance of any services rendered by the firm.

Where the parties are of the opinion that direct informal negotiation has been unable to amicably resolve the dispute, or, that it is not appropriate either party may refer the dispute to the International Arbitration for Resolution.

8.12 Language and Law

- 8.12.1 The language of the GCA and the law governing any ensuing contract shall be the English language and the laws of Kenya respectively unless otherwise stated.

8.13 Waiver

- 8.13.1 Any omission or failure by CGUG to exercise any of its rights or enforce any of the penalties arising from the obligations imposed on the law firm shall in no way, manner or otherwise howsoever, alter, amend, prejudice, vary, waive or be deemed to alter, amend, prejudice, vary, waive or otherwise whatsoever any of CGUG's powers and rights as expressly provided in and as regards the GCA and any ensuing contract.

8.14 Force Majeure

- 8.14.1 Force majeure means any circumstances beyond the control of the parties, including but not limited to:

- a) war and other hostilities (whether war be declared or not), invasion, act of foreign enemies, mobilization, requisition or embargo;
- b) ionizing radiation or contamination by radio-activity from any nuclear fuel or from any nuclear waste from the combustion of nuclear fuel, radioactive toxic explosives or other hazardous properties of any explosive nuclear assembly or nuclear components thereof;

- c) rebellion, revolution, insurrection, military or usurped power & civil war;
- d) riot, commotion or disorder except where solely restricted to employees, servants or agents of the parties;
- e) Un-navigable storm or tempest at sea.

8.14.2 Notwithstanding the provisions of the GCA, neither party shall be considered to be in default or in breach of its obligations under the GCA or any ensuing contract to the extent that performance of such obligations is prevented by any circumstances of force majeure which arise after the GCA.

8.14.3 If either party considers that any circumstances of force majeure are occurring or have occurred which may affect performance of its obligations it shall promptly notify the other party and provide reasonable proof of such circumstances.

8.14.4 Upon the occurrence of any circumstances of force majeure, the law firm shall endeavor to continue to perform its obligations so far as is reasonably practicable. The law firm shall notify CGUG of the steps it proposes to take including any reasonable alternative means for performance, which is not prevented by force majeure. The law firm shall not take any such steps unless directed so to do by CGUG.

8.14.5 If the law firm incurs additional costs in complying with CGUG's directions under sub clause 8.14.4, then notwithstanding the provisions of the GCA and any ensuing contract, the amount thereof shall be agreed upon with CGUG and added to the fees and charges payable.

8.14.6 If circumstances of force majeure have occurred and shall continue for a period of twenty-one (21) days then, notwithstanding that the law firm may by reason thereof have been granted an extension of time for performance of the services, either party shall be entitled to serve upon the other seven (7) days' notice to terminate the instructions. If at the expiry of the period of twenty-eight (28) days, force majeure shall still continue, the services at the option of either party shall terminate.
